

CUTS SADLY INTO PROFITS.

THAT IS THE WAREHOUSEMEN'S CLAIM AGAINST RAILROADS.

Interstate Commerce Hearing Begun in Kansas City Yesterday Before Commissioner J. D. Youmans.

The complaint of the American Warehousemen's Association against the principal railroads of the country is being investigated so far as it applies to the Kansas City lines at the federal court room by Interstate Commerce Commissioner J. D. Youmans. The hearing began yesterday and will be completed today. The complainants claim that it is one of the most important matters ever called before the commission. The railroad men insist that it is of no consequence; but they have at times by force of competition been forced to show some accommodations to shippers and that the complaint of the Warehousemen's association was made solely because in showing that accommodation some small warehouse charges for storage failed to drop into the tills of the association.

The complaint charges that the railroads allow shippers to leave goods in the depots and storehouses of the railroad companies for a time free of storage as a matter of accommodation. The warehouse people furnish storage facilities for shippers, and charge for the service, and whatever advantage the railroads may show an occasional shipper tends to interfere with their trade. They want the government to declare that the railroad companies cannot show such accommodations, but that freight not properly delivered be sent to their warehouses where storage charges must be paid. The complaint is against all of the railroads of the city except the Pittsburg & Gulf, and the general agents of all of the companies are witnesses in the hearing. The attorneys of all the lines are on hand to see what is done and show their side of the contention.

Yesterday the witnesses who testified said that at times free storage was given to shippers. It was rendered necessary by the sharp competition in getting business. It was never given where the companies could evade it, and only at such times as the stuff that was held was not materially in the way in handling business. Some men had been refused the accommodation at times because the houses were filled with passing business. It was given to give as little of that sort of accommodation as was possible. G. M. Jordan, of the Great Western, said that when such was held by his line the receiver must pay all charges and release the commodity from any liability while the goods remained in the house. He had extended the favor to some and had been forced to refuse it to others at times when the house was filled. A carload of toothpicks and another of washboards and a third of various goods were free of charge owing to an agreement with the shipper in Boston, so Agent Harmon of the Burlington testified.

This morning at 9 o'clock the testimony of the Missouri Pacific officials will be taken, and some of the shippers of the principal cities of the land, and the mass of testimony will be considered by the commission at its session in Washington.

The Warehousemen's association is represented by Percy Thompson, its secretary, and E. K. Sumner, of New York. It has storage houses in the city, and claims to have suffered inconvenience to its business by the liberal policy of the railroads. They are making a hard fight to show the aggregate amount of business embraced in the hearing.

The railroads were represented by M. A. Low, of the Rock Island; H. C. Moore, of the Santa Fe; Frank Hagerman, of the Gulf; L. A. Brule, of the Pittsburg & Gulf; and H. A. Wagner, of the Missouri Pacific, who will be on hand this morning.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.
Philadelphia 2, Washington 1.
Philadelphia, Sept. 20.—Philadelphia defeated Washington today in an interesting game. McLaughlin was effective when men were on base, but was not so good when the bases were empty. He pitched eight innings, allowing four runs, four hits and two errors. Attendance, 1,300. Score: R. H. E.
Philadelphia . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 9 0
Washington . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0 1

Western League Standing.
Columbus . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0
St. Paul . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0
Milwaukee . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0
Detroit . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0
Indianapolis . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0
Cincinnati . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0
St. Louis . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0

Baseball Notes.
Columbus, O., Sept. 20.—The final series with Grand Rapids was transferred to this city, and three games played this afternoon. Score:
Columbus . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0
Grand Rapids . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0

Milwaukee 7-5, Indianapolis 11-0.
Detroit, Sept. 20.—McCauley's poor work lost the first game to the Indians today. Irwin pitched a very clever game, and with fair support, won the game. But five innings were played in the second, owing to cold weather. The game was postponed until tomorrow, when it was played. The Indians won the game, 11-0.

Baseball Notes.
Columbus, O., Sept. 20.—The final series with Grand Rapids was transferred to this city, and three games played this afternoon. Score:
Columbus . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0
Grand Rapids . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0

Milwaukee 7-5, Indianapolis 11-0.
Detroit, Sept. 20.—McCauley's poor work lost the first game to the Indians today. Irwin pitched a very clever game, and with fair support, won the game. But five innings were played in the second, owing to cold weather. The game was postponed until tomorrow, when it was played. The Indians won the game, 11-0.

Baseball Notes.
Columbus, O., Sept. 20.—The final series with Grand Rapids was transferred to this city, and three games played this afternoon. Score:
Columbus . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0
Grand Rapids . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0

Milwaukee 7-5, Indianapolis 11-0.
Detroit, Sept. 20.—McCauley's poor work lost the first game to the Indians today. Irwin pitched a very clever game, and with fair support, won the game. But five innings were played in the second, owing to cold weather. The game was postponed until tomorrow, when it was played. The Indians won the game, 11-0.

Baseball Notes.
Columbus, O., Sept. 20.—The final series with Grand Rapids was transferred to this city, and three games played this afternoon. Score:
Columbus . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0
Grand Rapids . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0

Milwaukee 7-5, Indianapolis 11-0.
Detroit, Sept. 20.—McCauley's poor work lost the first game to the Indians today. Irwin pitched a very clever game, and with fair support, won the game. But five innings were played in the second, owing to cold weather. The game was postponed until tomorrow, when it was played. The Indians won the game, 11-0.

Baseball Notes.
Columbus, O., Sept. 20.—The final series with Grand Rapids was transferred to this city, and three games played this afternoon. Score:
Columbus . . . 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0
Grand Rapids . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0

DWEYER'S HORSES RUN WELL.

CAPTURE BOTH STAKES AND ONE OVER-NIGHT EVENT.

Ben Eder Captures the One Mile Event in Impressive Style—Corbett Off at St. Louis—Corbett Plays Ball at Milwaukee.

New York, Sept. 20.—At Gravesend today M. F. Dwyer's horses led the lot of winners. He carried off both stakes and one of the over-night events. The All White was not in the first race. Salubra, the favorite, was ridden in a lot of pockets, and landed fourth. Kentucky, Queen and Warrenton finished all the way and finishing in that order in a furious drive. Then began a handicap, in which Howard was the favorite and Ben Eder a remarkably unbacked outsider. Howard was for the first quarter, and then gave way to Kentucky, who showed the way into the stretch, however, Howard, who was on the rail with Ben Eder, rushed in front and maintained his advantage to the end. The crowd here were not disappointed. Demagogue was a hot favorite while Kentucky was as good as 7 to 1 at all times. Kentucky was shown in front, and kept there to the middle of the upper turn, when she dropped back to fourth place. Then Ben Eder assumed the lead, but Previous went by him with a rush and won by a length. Kentucky came again in the stretch and out the place from Ben Eder. Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

Dwyer's third victory came in the Parkville handicap, which was not on card. Hill took the lead at the start and held it up to the last furlong, when Simms brought Cleopatra in on the rail, and drove her to the head of the pack, from which place she won all out.

MR. JORDAN OF KANSAS.

Starts the Horses in the Summer, Starts the Politicians in the Fall.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

A. C. Jordan, of Lyons, Kas., is in the city. Mr. Jordan is one of the best known and most popular race horse starters in the West. He has just closed the North Missouri fair and race circuit, his last position being at the Liberty fair, which ended Saturday. Mr. Jordan has the reputation of being a fair starter of race judgment, and is well liked by all the horsemen. When at his post of duty he knows no one and bends his energies to getting the horses away to the winners.

BERNHEIMERS
12th and Main Sts.

ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY

And of great interest to the ladies of Kansas City and vicinity.

Our Grand Fall Millinery Opening

TAKES PLACE NEXT

Wednesday—Thursday—Friday,

SEPTEMBER 22, 23 AND 24.

A positively peerless gathering of beautiful Trimmed Pattern Hats confined exclusively to Bernheimers. Fully double the number ever shown at any of our previous openings. All the world's best ideas gathered here—and at figures unapproachable elsewhere.

Dressy, tasty Trimmed Hats at $2.49 by the hundreds.
Rich Pattern Hats up to $50.00 and all grades between.

Thousands of original, exclusive designs of our own creation—more stylish and more popular, more called for than the imported. A broad, comprehensive showing, eclipsing all our past efforts. No cards—but to everybody a cordial invitation is extended to come and witness the greatest millinery exhibit ever made in Kansas City.

Come as early in the forenoon as you can. You'll have better opportunities for seeing and escape the afternoon throng.

G. BERNHEIMER, BROS. & CO.

STREET MAIL BOXES ROBBED

HOLD GANG OF THIEVES AND FORGERS VISITS KANSAS CITY.

Letters Containing Checks Stolen From the Boxes, Checks Raised and Banks Defrauded—Secret Service Men at Work.

The street mail boxes in Kansas City were rifled last week, it is believed, by the most expert gang of mail box robbers in the United States. So far as known but one check was obtained, on which less than $